

Letter from Gardiner Greene Hubbard to Alexander Graham Bell, August 6, 1875, with transcript

Letter from Gardiner Greene Hubbard to Alexander Graham Bell. Cambridge, August 6, 1875. Dear Mr. Bell:

Your note of yesterday is just received. I am very sorry that you have decided to visit Nantucket, yet hope you will reconsider your intention.

You go against the wishes of Mrs. Hubbard and myself, being carried away by the same unmanly feeling which marked your course on a former occasion.

You will regret this new burst of passion as much as you now do the former. I am,

Yours very truly, Gardiner G. Hubbard.
